

Latest News from Mexico.

The steamship Tennessee, with Vera Cruz dates to the 6th ult., has arrived at N. Orleans. The United States Minister, Mr. McLane, had recognized the Juarez government, which occasioned much rejoicing. Dates from the city of Mexico are of the 4th ult.

On the 2d, Degollado attacked the capital, but was repulsed with the loss of five hundred men. The Church party also sustained a loss of five hundred. Miramon was at Orizaba.

There is great rejoicing. A national salute and a military parade took place in honor of Mr. McLane's recognition of the Liberal Government.

The Liberals are surrounding the capital with a force of 13,000 men. They have cut off the supply of water and provisions. The garrison numbers 6,000 men. Miramon sent 1,000 men to the capital from Orizaba. Juarez's forces are pursuing Miramon.

Senor Mata has received official dispatches confirming the Tennessee's news. He will return to Washington in a few days.

President Juarez only awaits the return of Gov. Garza from Tampico, to take up the line of march for the capital. Sixteen out of eighteen States of the nation have recognized his government, and with the present show of success every element will manifest itself in his behalf. In the midst of this elation, too, it is creditable to know that the American people have not lost prestige here. We stand on a better ground than ever, and if Mr. Buchanan had acted more like a statesman, his government would have been the chief adviser of the Liberal chiefs of Mexico. As it is, however, our citizens may hope for benefits from Mexico which our government may never attain without force; and as we have gained ground, the French and English have lost.

AMERICAN PROTECTION.—The Vera Cruz correspondent of the New Orleans Delta says:—The English-French squadron remains in hostile attitude toward this place—favoring in every way Miramon and the church party.

The English and French merchants have renounced all further protection from the commanders of the vessels of their nations, and prefer to place themselves under the protection of the "stars and stripes."

BENTLY RE-CAPTURED.—Bently, the horse-thief and deserter, escaped from Fort Buchanan a few days since, and made for Sonora. He was instantly followed by James Graydon, who had with him corporal Mullins and Messrs. Reagan, Keen and Knox, from the post. After an exciting chase and many adventures, which we have not space to relate, Mr. Bently was nabbed and conducted to the Fort. Although not strictly lawful to invade Sonora in pursuit of criminals, the capture of a horse-thief anywhere is an act of public benefit, and Mr. Graydon and his companions are entitled to much credit for arresting this notorious marauder.

NAME OF A MURDERER.—The Mexican who murdered and robbed Stewart, near Magdalena, a few weeks since, was a heavy-set man about five feet eight inches high, and would weigh probably 180 pounds—his name is Atanacio Garcia, and he formerly resided at Mesilla. It is due to the Mexican authorities to say that they made strong efforts to capture him.

APACHES.—The country in the vicinity of the Patagonia mine is literally full of Apaches, chiefly Coyoteros. A party of thirty called at the Patagonia mine a few days since and demanded provisions. Being interrogated as to where they were going, they coolly answered they "were traveling for their health!" Towards the whites they manifested no hostility, but did not conceal their hatred against Mexicans.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—Rev. Mr. Tathill will preach on Sunday, the 8th inst., at Marshall's Rancho, and the Sunday following at Fort Buchanan.

The steamer Brother Jonathan arrived at San Francisco on the 14th ult., bringing $100,000 in gold dust from the Frazer River mines.

Lieut. George F. Evans, first regiment of dragoons, United States army, died at Augusta, Maine, on the 20th ult.

Mr. Richard Cobden has been visiting the schools of New York, and complimenting them. He will make an extensive tour throughout the Union.

Mr. Sickles deeply regrets, for many reasons, particularly for the sake of his child, who must one day read the record of her mother's shame, that the confession of Mrs. Sickles was published. The great billiard match between Phelan and Secretier, on which a large amount of money was bet, terminated in favor of Phelan, by 96 points.

The Mescalero Apaches have lately committed thefts in the immediate vicinity of Mesilla.

INVASION OF SONORA.—Our correspondent at Apache Pass writes us that the place is almost deserted by Indians, only two warriors and a few women and children remaining. The fighting men, to the number of three hundred, have departed on a foray to Sonora. They were well equipped, and stated they were going a long distance, and on their way home should attack Frontera.

A Decided Hit.

The London Times, in an article on the Sickles case, thus hits off the propensity of the Americans to carry arms. It says of Sickles: "Unable to master his emotion, the husband seized upon what weapons were near. These constituted a complete arsenal or armory—we question if many English gentlemen could, in a moment of indignation, suddenly stretch out their hands, as Mr. Sickles did, and find ready two single-barreled pistols and a revolver!"
